

Thomas Vose

Thomas Vose currently manages the Perris Library in the Riverside County Library System. A graduate of UCLA, Thomas studied as many subjects as possible in order to make him a more well-rounded manager. Upon graduation, he worked at the Grace Mellman Library in Temecula where, as Reference Librarian, he was responsible for adult program planning. In 2008 he became manager of the Lake Elsinore Library, and in 2010 he obtained his current position in Perris. Without a budget to speak of, he was able to plan a number of great programs, including a mobile library, gaming programs, investment seminars, computer classes, archaeological

Thomas works hard to maintain these contacts in the community with an extensive outreach program. Always concerned about the Library's image, Thomas believes that innovative, interesting events keep the Library looking vibrant and relevant in the eyes of its community.
